

Finally. Your expertise has met its match.

Comprehensive Pharmacy Services empowers its clients with technology solutions that can help them deliver even more, with industry-leading analytics and cloud-based, clinical documentation and performance reporting. Our 340B SMART™ software provides real savings, while helping you manage the complexities of the 340B program – with features such as split billing, inventory management and a detailed audit tool for compliance and regulation.

Like you, we have unparalleled industry expertise. Which is why we provide technology solutions that are not only beneficial, they can take pharmacy performance to another level.

Learn more about CPS's technology solutions at cpspharm.com

